RULE 35.6 _____ as follows:
(number and title)

OR

SPECIFICATION _____ as follows:
(number and title)

PROPOSED TEXT:

35.6. On-Water Judging (RRS Appendix P)

35.6.1. On-water Judges should use the following steps to assess a penalty:

- (a) Warn an offender with a whistle for a first violation and point at the offender. Warnings, once given, are to be in effect for the duration of the Regatta and numbers shall be posted on the Official Notice Board during the Protest Time for the day the Warning is given
- (b) Once an offender has been given the above warning and violates the rule again, then a yellow flag will be flown.
- (c) Repeat violations shall be subject to STCR 35.5. RRS P2.1 is changed to read "First and Subsequent Penalties". RRS P2.2 and P2.3 will not apply.

REASON:

In consultation with the STC head judge this is more consistent with the wishes of the Class and on the water judging.
