Waiver

I.Y.R.U. and U.S.Y.R.U. racing rule states, "... it shall be the sole responsibility of each yacht to decide whether or not to start or to continue to race."

I am responsible for the management, control, seaworthiness, and equipment of the yacht I will sail. My life jackets are in good condition, and the decision to wear them is solely mine and the members of my crew. Further, I am familiar with I.Y.R.U. and U.S.Y.R.U. rules and regulations, agree to sail in accordance with these rules, and maintain all safety regulations in accordance with these rules.

In consideration of being permitted to race this series, I assume the risk of participation and agree to waive any and all claims that I, my executors, legal representatives, heirs, successors, and assigns may have against the yacht club, organizing class or committee, race committee or judges, their officers, individuals, or employees conducting the race, and from liability for accident, injury, or death arising from participation, to the extent that such assumption of risk and waiving of claims does not void protection provided by my current insurance policies.

If I fail to provide any crew's signature on the waiver, as in the case of crew change, then I do hereby indemnify each of the above against any claim arising from operation of this yacht.
